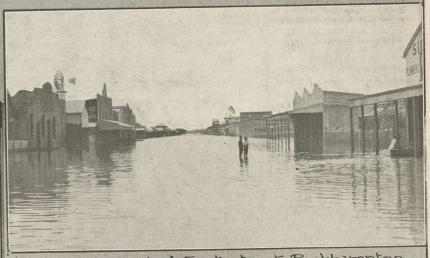
The Queenslander Pictorial.

THE NORTHERN FLOODS.

Howard Smith's wharf and shed, Mackay (on left Government steamer Relief wrecked).

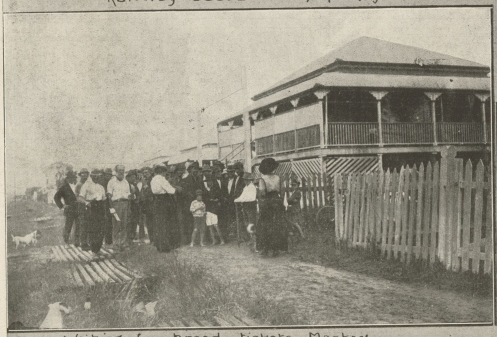
Victoria Park, Rockhampton.



Lower end of East-street, Rockhampton.

Railway Goods shed, Mackay.

Bolsover Street, Rockhampton.



Waiting for bread tickets, Mackay. W.C. Harvey, photo.

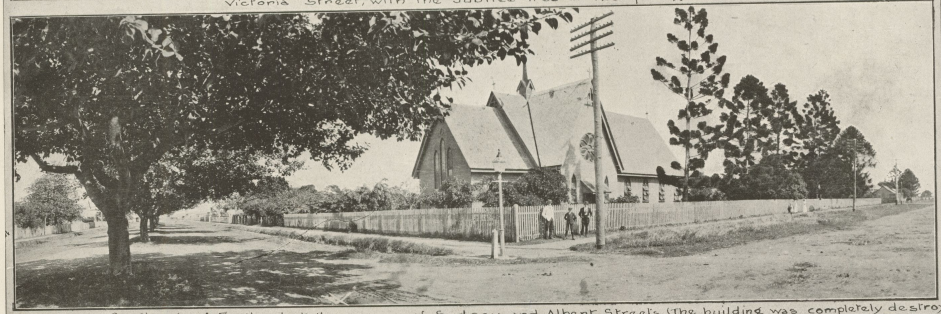
North Rockhampton Council Chambers. T.A. Pilkes, photo.

MACKAY BEFORE THE STORM.

Corner of Sydney and Albert Streets.

The Court House, which was unroofed

Victoria Street, with the Jubilee Tree in the foreground.



The Church of England, at the corner of Sydney and Albert Streets (the building was completely destroyed).

R. J. Belbin, photo.

How Passengers are Transhipped at Flat-top in rough weather.

IN THE BRITISA SOLOMONS.

The Government Road at Gizo

The Catholic Mission, Faisi

A native band of reed instruments

The pioneer of trade in the Solomons (at Gizo).

SEE SKETCHER

Photos by T. J. McMahon

The monument erected by the people of the British Solomons to the memory of Captain Thomas Woodhouse.

A Chief's House

Typical Solomon Islanders

Group of native chiefs of the Central Islands of the British Solomons.

A fleet of war canoes at Gizo

Mackay after the Cyclone.

Photos by H. H. Coulters.

River-street, looking East.

Another view in River-street, looking towards the Post Office.

Along the River Front.

Corner of Sydney and River streets.

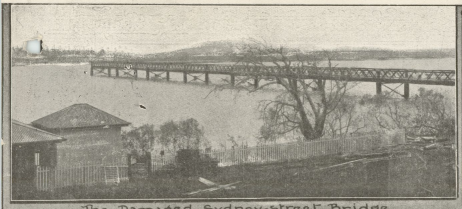
Looking up Sydney-street from the Bridge.

Corner of Wood and Victoria streets.

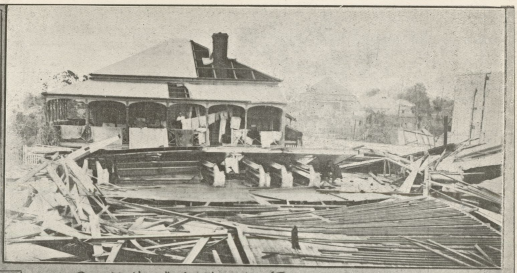
Drying Wet Drapery Stock in Sydney-street.

The Grand Hotel, from which the first news of the disaster was signalled to the Wyreema.

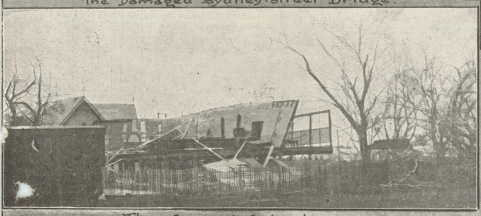
The Cyclone's Work at Mackay.



The Damaged Sydney-street Bridge.



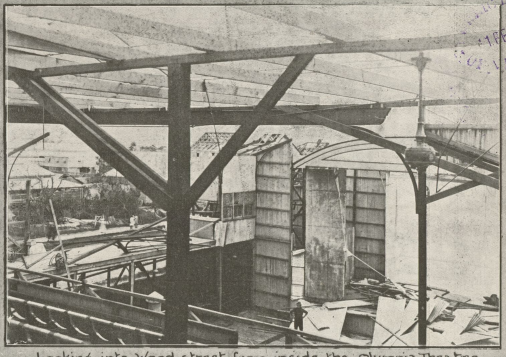
The Methodist Church (Parsonage in background). Photo by C. H. Coulters.



The Convent School.

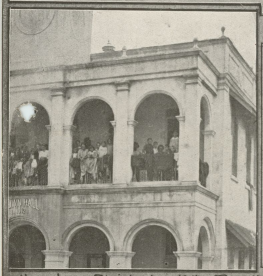
Masonic Hall, Wood Street (Star Theatre in background).

The Olympia Hotel.



Looking into Wood-street from inside the Olympia Theatre.

Lister Hospital (all patients were removed).



Homeless Residents at the Town Hall. Coulters, photo.

The Highest Part of Mackay (The river was up to the back of this house).

THE RARE NEST OF THE CRESTED SHRIKE TIT

See Science

A. H. Chisholm photo

Reinforcements

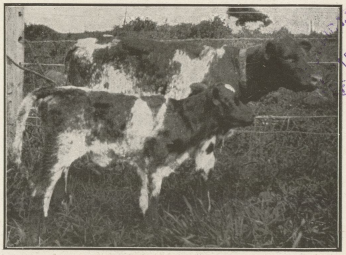
Talma, photo.

SOME QUEENSLAND BOYS AT A SALISBURY PLAIN CAMP.

Seated: Privates B. Vernon (Northern Rivers of N.S.W.), B. Tipper (Brisbane), and Frank Weare (Cairns).
Standing: Privates C. Peterson (Toowoomba), Les. G. Whale (Brisbane), C. Mason (Northern Rivers of N.S.W.), F. Page (Brisbane), T. O'Loughlin (Ipswich).

PRIVATE C. EVERDING,

Son of Mrs. C. Everding, Brisbane-road, Bundamba. Killed in action.



A PHENOMENAL CALF

Mr. S. Harding, Maleny, sends this photograph of a heifer calf of phenomenal size at birth, weighing 132lb. The other calf in the picture is of the same age. The calf was bred by Messrs. Hunt Brothers, of Springvale Illawarra stud herd, Maleny. The mother is a Stud Hook cow, Topsy of Springvale, and the sire Togo's Pet.

TRAIN CROSSING THE FLOODED BURNETT RIVER TO GAYNDAH.

ANOTHER VIEW OF THE FLOODED BURNETT. Photos. by J. H. Briggs, Wetheron

THE FLOODS AT ROCKHAMPTON.

Photos. by C. H. Garner and Irving Sheath

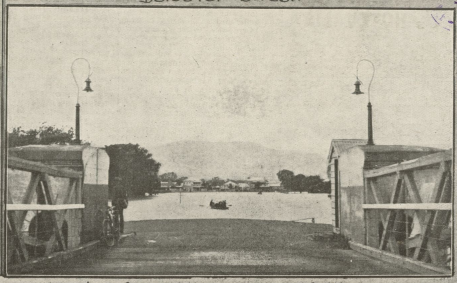
East Street — Walter Reid and Co: and J. M. Headrick and Co's offices on left.

East Street in front of the "Record" Office

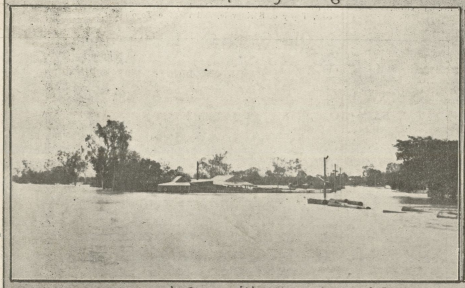
William Street showing the R.C. Cathedral.

The new Railway Workshops, Bolsover Street.

Alexandria Railway Bridge.



Looking from the North end of Fitzroy Bridge.



Steens' Sawmills, North Rockhampton.

The road to the Racecourse, North Rockhampton